Additional Information for D/L's Kickoff Speeck

Irangate -

- 25X1 ° [] is the focal point for OL in connection with this matter.
- 25X1 ° [] is the respository for all papers in this connection; i.e., requests from the committees and copies of all OL documents in response.
- ° The number of man-hours from 1 February to 31 March 1987, alone, came to 757 (searching for and pulling files, making copies, etc.).
- ° While OL didn't report any overtime used in supporting the various committees, the regular duties of OL employees giving this support often had to be done on an overtime basis.
- 25X1 ° [] OL employees have been involved in this operation.
- ° Some logisticians have had to testify on the Hill before the committees.
- ° P&PD had to purchase one copier and rent four others at a cost of $72,000.
- ° Printing "CIA" diagonally across the paper on which copies were made for the committees requesting relevant information cost $500.
- ° Safes, typewriters, terminals, personal computers, desks, chairs, etc., were provided.
- ° Black and secure telephone lines were installed.
- ° We've received 11 Independent Counsel requests.

OL MID-CAREER COURSE FOR WAGE-GRADE EMPLOYEES

✓ The objectives are to provide an opportunity for selected OL employees to receive updates on all OL activities, to offer a forum for a dialogue between participants and presenters, and to instill an improved awareness and a deeper appreciation of the worldwide mission of OL. Originally intended as a Wage-Grade program, the course is now open to all OL employees in the GS-09 to GS-12 grade range, or equivalent. There are usually 14 participants, and 40 students have attended the three courses given to date.
